

The Austrian Society for Children's and Youth Literature Research (ÖG-KJLF) is a platform whose purpose it is to initiate and promote research in the field of children's and youth literature. The Society sees itself as a scholarly-oriented extension to the established institutions promoting children's literature and serves as an intermediary between the relevant teaching and research activities at Austrian universities and teacher education schools.

Activities of the ÖG-KJLF

Organization of conferences and exhibitions

- Publication of the book series "Kinderliteraturforschung in Österreich"
- Publication of the journal libri liberorum
- Round table discussions to coordinate research and teaching at university
- Round table discussions for collectors of (historical) children's and youth books
- Award of prizes for scholarly studies on children's and youth literature

Membership in the ÖG-KJLF includes:

- The journal libri liberorum including all special issues
- Purchase of the individual volumes of the book series „Kinder- und Jugendliteraturforschung in Österreich“ at a special subscription price
- Information about events organized by the ÖG-KJLF
- Full members also receive the publication Jahrbuch für Kinder- und Jugendliteraturforschung", published in conjunction with the Society for Children's and Youth Literature Research in Germany and German-speaking Switzerland

Contact:

E-Mail: oegkjlf@univie.ac.at

Tel: +43 (0)1 4277 – 45029

Mailing address:

Universität Wien
Philologisch-Kulturwissenschaftliches
StudienServiceCenter
Universitätscampus
Spitalgasse 2-4, Hof 2/9 (1.9.)
A-1090 Vienna